Learning Chinese in Taiwan

Comprehensive information for international students to know culture and language of Taiwan, how to applying for their study and the TOCFL test.

Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language
TOCFL
測驗

01. Organization Introduction

The Steering Committee for the Test Of Proficiency-Huayu (SC-TOPI) was established in November 2005 under the direction of the Ministry of Education of R.O.C. We aim to develop and promote an effective Chinese assessment system, mainly the Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL), for Chinese learners worldwide to assess their Chinese proficiency.

02. Test Introduction

The Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL) is a standardized language proficiency test developed for non-native speakers of Chinese. It is the result of a joint project of the Mandarin Training Center, the Graduate Institute of Teaching Chinese as a Second Language, and the Psychological Testing Center of National Taiwan Normal University. The research project started in August 2001, and the tests started to be conducted in 2003. So far, it has served test takers from over 80 countries. The new version of TOCFL is developed since 2008, to become available in 2013.

The new version of the TOCFL has three proficiency bands: Band A, Band B, and Band C. Each of the bands has two levels. Therefore, there are a total of six levels. Levels 1 to 6. The items on the test of each level are 50 multiple choice items, to be answered in 60 minutes. Test takers can choose the test levels best suited to them based on their Chinese language proficiency and learning background.

03. Target Test Taker

TOCFL is designed for non-native speakers of Chinese. Those who wish to know about their level of Chinese proficiency, or those who want to study, work or do business in Chinese speaking countries are welcome to take the test.

04. Test Content

The authentic materials used in the TOCFL are extracted from materials in daily life, such as advertisements, public
